Plaintiff,

v.

JOHN DOES 1-20 d/b/a "Testking,"

Defendants.

CV 06-1116 JLR
COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Microsoft Corporation ("Microsoft") brings this action against John Does 1-20, d/b/a "Testking," for injunctive relief and damages as follows:

1. This is an action based upon violations of The Copyright Act 17 U.S.C. §101, et seq. and the Digital Millennium Copyright Act 17 U.S.C. §1201. All claims herein arise out of Defendants' unlawful copying and distribution of Microsoft's Certification Exams. Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief; monetary damages; an award of attorneys' fees and costs; and such additional relief as this Court deems appropriate.

Parties

2. The Plaintiff, Microsoft Corporation, is a Washington corporation, with its principal place of business in Redmond, Washington.

SFA 3/26 NO Summary

1 3. Microsoft is unaware of the true names and capacities of defendants sued
2 herein as John Does 1-20, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious
3 names. Microsoft will amend this complaint to allege their true names and capacities
4 when ascertained. Microsoft is informed and believes and therefore alleges that each of 5 the fictitiously named defendants is responsible in some manner for the occurrences
6 herein alleged, and that Microsoft's injuries as herein alleged were proximately caused by 7 such defendants. These fictitiously named defendants are herein referred to collectively as 8 "defendants."

9 4. The actions alleged herein to have been undertaken by the defendants were 10 undertaken by each defendant individually, were actions that each defendant caused to 11 occur, were actions that each defendant authorized, controlled, directed, or had the ability 12 to authorize, control or direct, and/or were actions each defendant assisted, participated in,
13 or otherwise encouraged, and are actions for which each defendant is liable. Each 14 defendant aided and abetted the actions of the defendants set forth below, in that each 15 defendant had knowledge of those actions, provided assistance and benefited from those 16 actions, in whole or in part. Each of the defendants was the agent of each of the 17 remaining defendants, and in doing the things hereinafter alleged, was acting within the 18 course and scope of such agency and with the permission and consent of other defendants.

19 Jurisdiction and Venue

20 5. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action
21 pursuant to the provisions of 17 U.S.C. §501; 28 U.S.C. §1338(a); and 28 U.S.C. §1331.

22 6. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(b). The 23 infringing materials that are the subject of this litigation were offered for distribution in 24 this District and the claims alleged in this action arose in this District.
25

Factual Allegations

7. Microsoft is in the business of, among other things, certifying the competency of individuals engaged in various fields of the information technology industry (hereinafter, "Certification Programs").

8. The purpose of Microsoft's Certification Programs are: (1) to set an industry wide, worldwide recognized standard of basic competency levels in various fields of the information technology industry; (2) to maximize efficiency in recruiting, hiring, training, and promoting employees; (3) to help fill the needs of today's information technology workforce by providing individuals with skills in demand; (4) to provide industry educators with the standards necessary to prepare individuals to meet the job skills of today.

9. In order to become certified under any of Microsoft's various Certification Programs, a candidate must pass the required Certification Exam(s). Microsoft owns and offers as part of its certification programs, among other things, the fifty-five (55) certification exams identified in Appendix A to this Complaint. Each Certification Exam is an original work of authorship fixed in a tangible medium of expression by Microsoft.

10. Microsoft also protects its Certification Exams by requiring its certified professionals to agree to a Non-Disclosure Agreement. Students who pass the necessary Certification Exams are eligible to designate themselves as Microsoft Certified Professionals, or "MCPs". Before an individual may use the MCP designation, he or she must agree to the Microsoft Certified Professional Program Agreement (MCPPA), which identifies the Certification Exams as Microsoft's trade secrets and prohibits, among other things, unauthorized disclosure or distribution of Certification Exam materials. (The non-disclosure portion of the MCPPA is attached to Microsoft's Complaint as Exhibit I and incorporated herein by reference).

1 11. Microsoft further acted to protect its Certification Exams by utilizing a
2 secure procedure to register its copyrights in its various Certification Exams. Microsoft's
3 applications comply with the requirements of the Copyright Act (17 U.S.C. §101, et seq.).

4 12. The copyright in each of the exams identified in Appendix A was 5 registered, using the "secure" filing procedure, with the United States Copyright Office in 6 compliance with the Copyright Revision Act of 1976 (17 U.S.C. §101, et seq.) and 7 Copyright Office Regulations. True and correct copies of the certificates of registration
8 for each of the exams identified in Appendix A are attached to this Complaint as Exhibits
9 2-56 and incorporated herein by reference.

10 13. Finally, Microsoft protects its Certification Exams by utilizing 11 technological measures such as password protection and "click through" licenses to 12 effectively control access to the exams, granting access to the exams only to those 13 individuals authorized by Microsoft. These technological measures effectively protect 14 Microsoft's exclusive right of reproduction and distribution of the exams.

15 Defendants' Unlawful Acts

16 14. Defendants operate a web site at the Internet domain name
17 "Testking.com." Through Testking.com, defendants offer for sale training materials
18 allegedly designed to prepare students to successfully pass Microsoft Certification Exams.

19 15. Microsoft is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that the 20 Microsoft Certification Exam training materials defendants sell through Testking.com 21 contain exam questions and answers that are either identical or substantially similar to 22 Microsoft's copyrighted exam questions and answers. Microsoft has not licensed or 23 authorized defendants to copy or distribute its copyrighted exam content.

24 16. Microsoft is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that 25 defendants' customers who purchase Microsoft exam questions and answers are not

1 required to pass through any of the technological measures that Microsoft uses to control
2 access to and protect its rights in the exams.

3 17. In sum, defendants have provided and are providing, without permission or 4 license from Microsoft, the original copyrighted exam content from Microsoft
5 Certification Exams to Microsoft Certification Candidates via Testking.com.

6 18. Microsoft is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that in 7 addition to Testking.com, defendants own and/or operate additional websites through 8 which they also sell "training materials" that are identical or substantially similar to 9 Microsoft's copyrighted Certification Exam questions and answers.

10 19. Defendants have utilized a number of techniques to conceal their activities
11 with respect to all of their websites, including Testking.com. The techniques defendants 12 have used to conceal their activities include but are not necessarily limited to private 13 registration of their domain names and use of proxies and/or false identities to register 14 their domain names.

15 20. Based on the facts alleged herein, defendants have committed, and are 16 committing, thousands of acts of copyright infringement. These acts of infringement are 17 willful, deliberate and committed with knowledge of Microsoft's registered copyrighted 18 material.

19
20 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Copyright Infringement 17 U.S.C. §501, et seq.
(All Defendants)

21
22 21. Plaintiff realleges and reincorporates herein by reference the allegations
23 contained in Paragraphs 1 through 20 of this Complaint as set forth above.

24 22. Microsoft is the author, creator and owner of the right, title and interest in 25 various copyrighted Certification Exams registered with the United States Copyright
Office. (See Exhibits 2-56, supra).

1 23. Defendants willfully infringed Microsoft's copyrights by copying and 2 distributing, without any authorization from Microsoft, infringing copies of the 3 Certification Exams and/or making other infringing use of the Certification Exams in the 4 United States of America.

5 24. Microsoft never authorized the defendants to copy or duplicate or license
6 any of the Certification Exams, either in whole or in part, or to offer for sale or sell, or 7 offer access to, any copies of its Certification Exams or individual test questions or 8 answers appearing thereon.

9 25. As a result of the foregoing activities, defendants are liable to Microsoft for 10 willful infringement under 17 U.S.C. §501, et seq.

11 26. Microsoft has suffered and will continue to suffer, substantial and 12 irreparable damage to its business reputation and goodwill, as well as losses in an amount 13 in excess of $75,000, but not yet fully ascertained, and which will be further determined
14 according to proof. In addition to Microsoft's actual damages, Microsoft is entitled 15 pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §504, to receive the profits made by defendants from their wrongful 16 acts. In the alternative, Microsoft is entitled to statutory damages pursuant to 17 17 U.S.C. §504(c). These statutory damages should be enhanced in accordance with 18 17 U.S.C. §504(c)(2) due to the defendants' willful conduct.

19 27. Microsoft has no adequate remedy at law for defendants' wrongful conduct
20 in that: (1) Microsoft's copyrights are a unique and valuable property that have no readily 21 determinable market value; (2) the infringement by defendants constitutes interference
22 with Microsoft's goodwill and customer relations; and (3) defendants' wrongful conduct 23 and the damage resulting therefrom is continuing. Therefore, Microsoft is entitled to 24 injunctive relief pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §502 and to an Order under 17 U.S.C. §503 that 25 any infringing materials should be impounded and destroyed.

1 28. Microsoft is also entitled to recover its attorney's fees and costs pursuant to 2 17 U.S.C. §505.

4 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

5 WHEREFORE, Microsoft respectfully requests judgment as follows:

6 1. That the Court enter judgment against defendants that they have willfully
7 infringed Microsoft's rights to the copyrighted Certification Exams identified in 8 Appendix A under 17 U.S.C. §501;

9 2. That the Court issue permanent and injunctive relief against the defendants
10 and that defendants, their officers, agents, representatives, servants, employees, attorneys, 11 successors and assigns, and all others in active concert or participation with defendants be 12 enjoined and restrained from:

13 (a) Imitating, copying or making any other infringing use or infringing
14 distribution of any Microsoft Certification Exams or variations thereof;

15 (b) Using reproductions, counterfeits, copies, or colorable imitations of 16 Microsoft's copyrighted Certification Exams or variations thereof, and the 17 distribution, offering for distribution, circulation, sale, offering for sale, 18 advertising, importing, promoting or displaying of spurious products or 19 merchandise not authorized or licensed by Microsoft;

20 (c) Utilizing or maintaining any website to store material that infringes
21 on Microsoft's copyrights;

22 (d) Providing in any medium whatsoever any copyrighted material
23 owned by Microsoft; and 24
25

1 (c) Assisting, aiding or abetting any other person or business entity in 2 engaging or performing any of the activities referred to in subparagraphs (a)
3 through (d) above.

4 3. That the Court enter an Order of impoundment pursuant to 5 Section 17 U.S.C. §503 and §509(a) and 28 U.S.C. §1651(a), impounding all infringing
6 copies of Microsoft Certification Exams, and any related items, including business records
7 which are in defendants' possession and under their control.

8 4. That the Court enter an Order pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1651(a) requiring that 9 the domain name Testking.com be transferred to Microsoft.

10 5. That the Court enter an Order declaring that defendants hold in trust, as 11 constructive trustees for the benefit of Microsoft, their illegal profits gained from the 12 distribution of infringing copies of Microsoft Certification Exams, and requiring 13 defendants to provide Microsoft with a full and complete accounting of all amounts due 14 and owing to Microsoft as a result of defendants' infringing activities.

15 6. That the Court enter an Order instructing defendants, jointly and severally,
16 to pay Microsoft's general, special, actual and statutory damages as follows:

17 (a) Microsoft's damages and defendants' profits pursuant to 18 17 U.S.C. §504(b); or

19 (b) In the alternative, enhanced statutory damages pursuant to 20 17 U.S.C. §504(c)(2) for defendants' willful infringement of Microsoft's 21 copyright.

22 7. That the Court Order defendants to pay Microsoft both the cost of this 23 action and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Microsoft in prosecuting this action; and
25

1 8. That the Court grant Microsoft such additional and further relief as is just 2 and proper.
